No Easy Way Out

The same thoughts going through my head So many things better left unsaid Well I'm telling you baby, there's no easy way out So hard to make any sense at all Well I'm tellin' you darlin' there's no easy way out Baby I, just want to be standing by your side Whenever you need whatever I can do Don't worry 'bout losing face You know my heart is in the right place Well I'm telling you baby there's no easy way out You know it's only a matter of time Then everything's gonna work out fine All I can do is wait, I don't care how long it takes Baby I, just want to be standing by your side Whenever you need someone to hold you tight Try to understand that every word I say is true Tell me what else can I do? I just want to be

For Once In Our Lives

Since this morning I've been thinking how Things have changed between the two of us We've been falling through the here and now It's time for us to reinvest our trust Can't you see for once in our lives Now our love has finally, come to ground This flame we have is burning so bright Burning forever, now we're back together Since this morning I've been asking why Why we let this sweet love slip away When we knew love, was for you and I The reason we could face the darkest days Can't we see for once in our lives All the things we wanted have appeared Now that we have love realised Realised forever For once in our lives there's no turning back No running away and no covering our tracks For once in our lives there's no one to blame No broken hearts cause we've found love again For once, for once in our lives Since this morning I've been so relieved There's no more pressure from within I had this sense that you would get to see There was no lasting love with him For once in our lives there's no turning back Maybe we can't believe, how things can be so wrong Maybe it's time that we learn To reach out for the feeling of love For once in our lives there's no turning back

Somewhere In Your Heart

They say in time all the truth comes to light When you can see past the wrong and the right There's a a feelin' inside stronger than pride Finds me every lonely night Well I have searched the past in my mind How we failed to see the danger signs Well one good reason why we let our love die Is something that I've failed to find Somewhere in your heart There's a lonely part that beats for me Somewhere in your broken heart There's a lonely part that beats for me Well I have cried till my tears have turned cold I'd trade my pride for peace in my soul Please don't make me pay for the rest of my days For emotions that ran out of control We've all but closed the door on our past And this one chance may well be our last So before you decide, one last look inside Is all my shattered dreams can ask Somewhere in your heart

Eyes Of Blue

I want to know, how does it feel Behind those eyes of blue

You've made your mistakes

And now your heart aches

Behind those eyes of blue

People may say, you've had your chance

And let it slip away

But hard as they try

There's a dream that won't die

Behind those eyes of blue

Maybe once in a while

There's a trace of a smile

Behind those eyes of blue

But it's painfully clear

There's a river of tears

Behind those eyes of blue

You know life is too short

For compromising

Take a hold of your dream

And realise it

You know there's nothing left

To stand in your way

Except yourself and I know

Though your heart's full of pain

That a hope still remains

Behind those eyes of blue

Always Have Always Will

If you're wondering if your love

Will stand the test of time

I'm here to tell you I can put your mind at ease

Ain't nothing in the whole wide world

That could ever make me leave

How could I ever walk away

Darlin' I need your love each and every day

Always have, always will

If you should ask me do I love you still

Without shame without blame

I always have and always will

I always have and always will

I remember, there were times

When my heart could not conceive

Something so beautiful could happen in this life

A precious gift to me worth any sacrifice

There is no doubt or mystery

It's obvious that you mean everything to me

Always have, always will

It was almost like your heart called out my name

I was helpless from the start

I knew right there and then I'd never be the same

Never never

I'd never be the same

Nothing More Than A Memory

Outside in the pouring rain

I walked the lonely streets and searched in vain

Every corner of every street

And every doorway that we used to meet

As I turned to walk away

I could swear I saw your face

Long into the night I see

Shadows dancing alone with me

I know it must be

Nothing more than a memory

I try to keep my hurt inside

With some resemblance of my broken pride

I've done everything that I can do

I can't face the thought of losing you

And as I turn to walk away

I thought I saw your face again

Long into the night

People say that I'm crazy

I'm being weak when I should be strong

I've got to pull myself back together before too long

Oh Oh Oh My My My

Since you ask me what it takes to love me

Get it straight right from the start

You've got to move me got to get this to me

Keep it coming right from your heart

Then oh, oh, oh, my, my, my

I will never let you down

Oh, oh, my, my, my lovers make this world go around

You've got to keep it uncomplicated

If you see my point of view

Plain and simply stated you must do what you must do

A lot of people spend their lifetime searching

Getting more and having less

You and me though

Now we've got this working every move is happiness

Then oh, oh, my, my, my

Talkers talking, preachers preaching

Making life a misery

If they could feel every night what we feel

They'd wish they were you and me

Then oh, oh, oh, my, my, my

Don't Walk Over Me

You can't see the flip side of the coin You can't feel the part where two hearts join There was a time I could make your day When love was strong, has it gone Fading far away? Don't walk over me Don't walk over me But don't walk over me True there's no reason for me to jump and shout Give me love when your love's not around I may not have the patience of a saint Baby please don't make me hurry up and wait Don't walk over me I remember hearing footsteps running up to your door They were echoes of my heartbeat Nothing could be colder, how can love be over When you're still not sure Don't walk over me

Only A Breath Away

You might think I keep my distance You may think I have no plans to stay You might think I have no weakness But you don't understand a word I say I tell you honestly You know you mean the world to me And if you're ever in need I'll tell you where I'm gonna be Oh veah alright Well I'm only a breath away Oh yeah don't cry Cause I'm only a breath away Only a breath away Never even been a day gone by When I haven't felt your presence Deep within my heart and in my mind No matter where you are I'll be with you constantly And when you're feeling alone All you've got to do is think of me

Love Will Keep Us Alive

I was standing all alone against the world outside
You were searching for a a place to hide
Lost and lonely now you've given me the will to survive
When we're hungry love will keep us alive
Don't you worry, sometimes you've just got to let it ride
The world is changing right before your eyes
Now I've found you there's no more emptiness inside
When we're hungry love will keep us alive
I would die for you, climb the highest mountain
Baby there's nothing I wouldn't do, for you
Now I've found you there's no more emptiness inside
When we're hungry love will keep us alive
I would die for you etc.

How Long

Well your friends with their fancy persuasion Don't admit that it's part of a scheme But I can't help but have my suspicion Cause I ain't quite as dumb as I seem Well you said you were never intending To break up our scene in this way But there ain't any use in pretending It could happen to us any day How long, has this been going on? How long, has this been going on?
